Frequently Asked Questions: RFQ for Professional Engineering Services

Question #1: Will the selected consultant for this RFQ be allowed to prepare applications or designs for member municipalities on LOTCIP projects reviewed by SECOG during this contract period?

Answer: No, the SECOG consultant may not review work completed by their own consultant firm.

Question #2: Will there be multiple consultants selected from this RFQ?

Answer: SECOG is considering awarding more than one consultant for this RFQ. Once executed, the selected consultants will be able to contract with member municipalities on LOTCIP projects during the contracted period. When the LOTCIP application is submitted, SECOG will review the identified design team and assign a different contracted consultant to perform these professional engineering services.

Question #3: Will the selected consultant for this RFQ be precluded from participating in future RFQ/Ps for individual projects for the municipalities?

Answer: No, the selected consultant may apply for municipal RFQ/Ps for projects utilizing non-LOTCIP funding.
